

SENATE THROWS UP THE SPONGE.

Passes Governor's So-Called Reorganization Bills.

Only Two Have Temerity to Oppose Stephens.

Unlimited Field Opened for Pet Job-Holders.

BY KYLE D. PALMER.

SACRAMENTO, April 20.—The unopposed passage of the reorganization bills by the Senate today was a triumph for Governor Stephens. The bills, which were introduced by the Governor's committee, passed by a vote of 18 to 2. The two dissenting votes were cast by Senators Stephens and Stephens.

ONLY TWO VOTED NO. Thirty-four Senators were present when the first bill, following brief debate, was brought to roll call. Senator Stephens, of Long Beach, and Senator Stephens, of Los Angeles, were the only legislators possessing sufficient temerity to fight the proposal.

Letting the Governor's plan of departmental reorganization stand down to defeat, but nothing in the bill to indicate that the administration leaders themselves were not content with it.

When the Senators concluded their debate on the administration's demands for passage of a major portion of the reorganization bills, the various bills were transferred to the Assembly where a more active, if equally unpromising, opposition to their passage was organized.

Despite the high claims for the Governor's plan, a careful analysis of his plan according to Senator Stephens, shows no real economy is assured and no increased efficiency guaranteed.

However, Senator Stephens finds the Governor's plan will open an unlimited field for appointment of State job holders at salaries to be fixed by the Governor.

Construct a political machine running in high gear for the expenditure of money raised through taxation.

Formal professional politicians to divide the people of California into believing that a real reorganization has been effected.

AUTOCRATIC POWER. Senator Stephens, who stood with Stephens in denouncing the administration's efforts to build up machinery to control the result of the next gubernatorial election, asserted that the so-called reorganization bills "merely leave to the sweet judgment of the Governor what new positions, boards and commissions shall be created."

Other Senators mildly protested against what they termed "undue force" used in killing the Stephens plan. But Stephens was unwilling to remain off the band wagon when the administration machine began.

In the Assembly, Arthur Webb of Santa Monica fired the first opposition broadside at the reorganization plan.

WEAK ATTEMPT. This is a weak attempt on the part of an insincere administration to make the people of the State believe that the State's wild extravagance is to be controlled," he said.

"None of us," he added, "are fooled or unduly impressed by this so-called reorganization plan."

AESTHETICS TO THE FORE.

Assembly Passes Appropriations for Buildings at Berkeley.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, April 20.—Education and aesthetics came to the fore in the Assembly today when the House passed and sent to the Senate a bill carrying appropriations for buildings at the University of California and one bill carrying $200,000 appropriation to save the redwoods.

The university bills were introduced by Mrs. Saylor, Assemblywoman from Berkeley, and provided $100,000 for a building for the school of education, and $500,000 for a physics building, both on the university campus at Berkeley.

The appropriation for the redwoods was carried in a bill by Cummings of Humboldt county. The only other bill carrying any considerable appropriation was by Morrison of San Francisco, and provides that the State shall in future bear half the expense of maintaining two fire boats on San Francisco Bay.

The Assembly spent the entire morning on its second reading bill, attacks having been made there successfully on some of the high-way bills, included in that file.

REPRINT MOTOR VEHICLE BILL. The afternoon was largely devoted to the reprinting of the bill, which finally was sent to be reprinted, after an amendment had been adopted out of several offered.

Other bills passed and sent to the Senate today included:

By Cummings—An act providing for the control and eradication of tuberculosis among cattle.

By White—Amending Section 1747 of the Political Code to provide for the control and eradication of tuberculosis among cattle.

OUR GOLFERS AFTER TROPHY.

America's Best to Play English
at Hoylake, May 23.

Great Hopes Are Centered in Dr. Paul Hunter.

Champions' Title Untouched
in Seventeen Years.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

American amateur golfers will open fire on the British crown at Hoylake, May 23, with the heaviest artillery in history. With Evans, Outmet, Jones, Platt and Dr. Paul Hunter heading the east there will certainly be no slim to offer if our amateurs fail to return with John Bull's lock. If they can't blast a way through the Albion barrier
with this array of talent, it will be a long time before we ever send a stronger team.

Our amateur male golfers have failed to win the British crown
back a championship, Walter Travis winning at Sandwich in 1904. Since then a long line of Yankee champions has charged the British stronghold, only to be repulsed with considerable slaughter—Travis in 1905 and 1914, Evans in 1911 and 1914, Outmet in 1914 and Gardner
in 1920.

Those golfers in the past have done
better than a massed attack. In 1914 Evans, Travis and Outmet
made little headway, but in 1915
Helmie Schmidt, who had never figured prominently in an American championship, went through the sixth round before Hilton finally upset him on the nineteenth hole. Last year Bob Gardner, playing practically a lone hand, went to the thirty-
seventh hole of the final round.

The chances of Dr. Paul Hunter, California's brilliant contribution to the American team, to scintillate at Hoylake is a favorite topic of conversation in local circles. Frank Peelies, veteran professional of Annandale, yesterday declared that the game Dr. Hunter is playing now is the equal of that of any amateur
in the world. He says that the State and Southern California champion
is at the top of his game and that little practice on the golf course
before the team sails April 30
and at Hoylake will put Dr. Hunter
on a par with the best.

The California star will have a round at Garden View, Long Island,
with Walter J. Travis, the great American who ever won a British amateur championship—the day before the team sailed for England.
Yesterday Dr. Hunter played the Annandale course with Everett Young, Patterson and
A. D. S. Johnson. Dr. Hunter
registered at 74, Patterson and Johnson 72, and Young 73, and Seaver
had 81.

As a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pitner in their machine, Miss Margaret Cameron, holder of the Northwestern California championship for women, left yesterday for Berkeley,
where she will play in the State championship, starting Monday. Mrs.
Pitner will accompany her.

Miss Cameron's game has improved so much in the past few months, says that there isn't a woman in the State who can touch
her at the present time. The last nine times she has played the Annandale course she has won, and hasn't had a score worse than an 84. Her best was an 81, and this includes a 7 on the first hole. Monday she shot an 83, and took a
on the short list.

Yesterday she played Dr. Hunter
with a few handicaps, and when Dr. Hunter was called away on business after the fourteenth she was one up and three strokes of her handicap to come. Against Jack Cady she has played with an eight-
stroke handicap.

Peelies says Miss Cameron now
gets longer distance with any club in the State, and that she is a real woman in the game. He says that she has learned to control distance
to get direction. On the fifteenth hole at Annandale (one of the uphill varieties) she got on the green
with a drive and a mashie. The hole is 321 yards in length.

Miss Cameron's strategy of building up a high school team, and
but she has marvelous hands, wrists
and forearms for golf, and, what is more, she is a real woman in the game, making a combination hard to beat. The honor of the south rests well
in her hands.

Thirteen scribes, minus Guy Price,
whose spiffy golf togs were borrowed by a tasteless friend, turned out
for the qualifying round of their championship tourney at the Pasadena Golf Club. Bill Kellogg and D. S. Chisholm had the best gross scores, with 74 and 83, respectively.

CURLEY BROWN IS GIVEN A SENTENCE.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HAYANA, April 20.—D. ("Curley") Brown, former president of the Cuban-American Golf Club,
was last night sentenced to twenty
months in prison on the charge of having aided a year ago in a plot
with intent to kill on Alberto Piedra. Brown is in the United States under bond.

MOREMANS TAKES LEAD.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, April 20.—Edouard
Moremans, European, walking
champion, defeated George Sutton, 460 to 198, in the first
hole of a 100-foot 15.3 ball game
contest today.

AMERICANS WIN.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, April 20.—The American polo team defeated a mixed
team of English and Irish in a practice match today. The score was 10 goals to 4.

Los Angeles Motorboat Club's New Clubhouse.

Future Home of Ye Yachting Fans.
Close to $1,000,000 is tied up in the big fleet of motor and auxiliary craft that call the clubhouse their home.
The majority of the craft has already been taken to the new anchorage and every appointment has been made conducive to the comfort and pleasure of the members.

YE LIFE ON OCEAN WAVE.

Los Angeles Motorboat Club Begins to Move Into New Apartments.

More than $750,000 are tied up in the big fleet of motor and auxiliary
craft that call the Los Angeles Motor Boat Club their home, and yet
for years, in fact since the organization of the club, they have been
planning to move into a new home,
without a real home of any permanence.

FISH AND GAME SAFE.

By the man-sized majority of 32 to 5, the State chamber of commerce registered its confidence
in the present typically American system of game and fish management, and its confidence in the man's government by and for
paid for by sportsmen, when it
voted to keep the Fish and Game Commission as it now stands.
A separate nonaligned body of three
gentleman-sportsman commissioners
from the game and fish industry,
State, free and clear of "entangling
alliances" or fatal consolidations
with any "State Department of Agriculture" whose unrelated duties
would conflict prohibitively with the conservation of California's wildlife.

Senators William J. Carr of Pasadena and Harris, joint-authors of the proposed agricultural conservation bill burying the fish and game
interests of sportsmen, and game
interests of sportsmen, with Senators Duncan, Dennett and Inman,
lost all its great titles of the Legislature, stood out and went down to defeat before the most remarkable and unanimous demonstration of popular resentment that has ever been shown by the men
who hunt and fish in California.

Senators John W. Jones and Sharkey did not vote. But the Pasadena Senator, determined to force
his will upon those who support the fish and game work with their dollar
license, disregarded their protests,
called his corporal's guard of adherents with obnoxious deserving to make a clean sweep of his "reorganization" plan, even at the cost
of including one of the self-supporting State departments whose conduct of its responsibilities had
drawn forth a unanimous approval beyond precedent in California, thus incurring the wrath of
sportsmen for all time to come.

"The elephant never forgets"—and
the half-million sports of California
are now on the war-path!
It was said in Sacramento that
thousands of telegrams and letters
had been received by legislators
from sportsmen, all asking only that their self-supporting interest be let alone, asking no money, only a chance to keep on running their business in behalf of fish and game
along present lines, paying all its bills as they have done for over twenty years, and warning only to be kept clean of politics. Every one of the southern delegation who
drawn forth a unanimous ap-
proval beyond precedent in California, thus incurring the wrath of
sportsmen for all time to come.

BENGALS FLAY CHESTY SEALS.

Essick's Lads Turn on Opponents and Maul Them.

Three Visiting Pitchers Fail to Stop the Tigers.

Vernon Sluggers Have Field
Day with the Bat.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Turning the tables with all the
gentle quiet of a dove of peace
running wild among the parlor
furniture, Vernon defeated the front place splashing Seals, 7 to 5.
There were several hot arguments and one flat fight as to what-er 5 to 3 is a worse whaling than 5 to 7. Then everybody shook hands and agreed that it was a great victory, with the Seals getting
what was coming to them, but overdue.

FROMME THERE.
It remained for Art Fromme, one
of the few who didn't pitch on the day before, to skin the Seals alive,
and their suffering was surely horrible. When, others fall, call on Fromme, has long been a campaign
slogan here, and the long right-
hander, like home hooch, seems to improve with age.

Charley Graham resorted to
pitch hitting and other subtle tricks
of the trade, calling on all the Irish
in town to bat, with the exception
of Hap O'Connor, who was in the grandstand, but only in the eighth
were the Seals able to pester Fromme, when they irritated him
for two runs.

THE TIGERS MISKICK.
The Tigers mistook Graham's
pitching staff for a three-layer cake
with vanilla filling, and used it for dessert, following a square meal of raw meat. In the course of the afternoon the Tigers hopped from Stan Lewis to Pat Finney to Ray Crumpler, knocking the first two for two runs.

NIPPONESE NOT KEEN FOR WAR.

Prominent Engineer Well Informed on Orient.

Says Military Party's Grip on Nation Slipping.

Doesn't Believe Japs Will Give Up Shantung.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—

"Japan does not want war," is the statement of a prominent American who has just talked with the State Department.

It is true that the military party is for the moment in the ascendancy over there. It is also true that the military party in any country may thrust that country into war by its appeals to pride and racial feeling.

"But the majority of the Japanese do not want war, any more than the majority of any people want war," he said.

Further, the military party is retaining its hold on power by such a very slender majority that it may be turned out at any moment.

HOSTILITY FELT. These statements are supplemented and modified, however, by his statements as to the hostility that all classes of Japanese seem to feel for the United States.

The most extraordinary attacks upon the United States, her people and her statesmen have recently been made in public gatherings in Japan by Japanese who are regarded as among the prominent members of the race.

"I do not believe that Shantung will ever be willingly given up by the Japanese," said he, "in spite of their promises. They are planning to stay forever, and their liking for Shantung is based not only on the mineral resources of the province, but also on the excellent physique of the Shantung men. If Japan were ever to gain complete control of the Chinese these would make excellent soldiers. I do not believe the Japanese can, however. The Chinese blood is too strong. In a generation the Japanese invaders would be swarmed up by their involuntary hosts."

PROMINENT ENGINEER. It is impossible to give the name of this gentleman. It may be said,

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Joseph H. Neeson, a Harvard student, was turned down by Justice Dunne in Brooklyn yesterday in his suit against 19-year-old Frances Ludwig to recover the value of an engagement ring, one string of im-tation pearls, one fountain pen, a flat pin, a Harvard ring and a $2.50 gold piece given to her under the impression that she intended giving herself to him. The items and the value of each were recorded in Joseph's little notebook, the total being $339.50.

The learned bench held that Frances was a minor when she became engaged and that, therefore, the methodical Harvard man was out of pocket as well as out of luck.

BUSINESS IMPROVES, IS GIST OF REPORT.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFICIAL SAYS SIGNS ARE FOR BETTER TIMES.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—An indication that business conditions throughout the country are improving is found in the fact that the volume of distribution by jobbers and retailers showed a distinct gain in March, over February, according to a report by Archer Wall Douglas, chairman of the committee on statistics and standards of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The most significant, and possibly most cheering feature of the situation, he said, "is that the automobile business seems to have been not dead, but sleeping. There is a resumption of operations in a modest way by some of the factories which were shut down, but which now have orders in hand. Also there is increasing sale for used cars."

"There is a better demand for lumber and building material and paint because of more building and construction. There is more building going on in the cities than in the country. There will not be much construction of any description on the farms until another harvest begins. The farmer who stands. Manufacturing is running mostly on short time. In the shoe trade, the demand for women's shoes is much better proportionately than for men's footwear."

"Excessively high railroad rates are one of the serious handicaps of the situation."

WILL TRY OFFICERS OF LOST GOVERNOR.

TWO WITH PILOT, CHARGED WITH NEGLIGENCE IN SINKING OF SHIP.

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 20.—Hearing of Third Officer Arne Hage of the steamer Governor, which was rammed and sunk by the freighter West Harland, off Port Townsend, Wash., April 1, with the loss of eight lives, will be held next Monday before Capt. Donald R. Ames and Harry Lord, United States steamboat inspectors. It was announced today.

The hearing of Capt. H. H. Marden, pilot of the Governor, will be held next Wednesday. The officers are charged with negligence in connection with the sinking of the vessel. The date for the hearing of Second Officer Kellenburg, also charged with negligence in the findings of the inspectors, has not been fixed.

VOLUNTEER WORKMAN GIVES LEGION A HAND.

BY A. F. DAY WIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—A white-haired elderly man dressed in blue overalls yesterday entered a building here which is being converted into a clubhouse for the American Legion, looked around curiously and then accosted the man in charge of the volunteer workers.

"I heard you were trying to fix up things for your opening party April 27," he said. "Can I help?"

"Sure, pitch in," was the answer. The elderly man "pitched" with hammer, saw and broom. For several hours he worked in silence among the volunteers until he was interrupted by the hall.

"Why, general, how long have you been here?"

"Former soldiers, sailors and marines looked wonderingly at the man in overalls. Then they recognized Maj.-Gen. Hunter Liggett, former field commander of the First American Army overseas, and until his retirement several weeks ago commander of the Ninth Army Corps."

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse. Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to everyone that constipation is caused by lack of water in the system and the use of drastic cathartics, like the old-fashioned cathartic and liver pills, make a bad matter worse, as they take too much water out of the system. Chamberlain's Tablets are much more mild and gentle in effect and when the proper dose is taken, their action is so natural that one can hardly realize that it is the effect of a medicine.

SANTA MONICA

Why farseeing men invested money there

R. C. GILLIS, Capitalist.

A good pilot, when making harbor, watches the buoys astern as well as ahead. Three broad-visioned men, Senator John P. Jones, Collis P. Huntington and Frederick H. Rindge, told me years ago there was nothing in the world to compare with Santa Monica.

One hundred million people are pushing at our back. Los Angeles people have the true American spirit and the progressiveness characteristic of the West. We have tremendous resources of hydraulic power and abundant raw material. Climatic conditions and American labor make manufacturing cheaper than elsewhere. Los Angeles is destined to be a great manufacturing city as well as the leading national resort.

There is no limit to the size of Los Angeles. Nothing can hold it back. Los Angeles' right hand rests upon Santa Monica. This is why I have always leaned toward Santa Monica as a place to make investments in property. Time is proving the wisdom of these investments.

The region from Hollywood to Santa Monica is destined to become one of the most desirable homestead sections of the world.

R. C. Gillis

E. P. CLARK, Power Railroad Builder.

Twenty-five years ago April 1st, Gen. M. H. Sherman and I completed the first railroad into Santa Monica. It was then the longest electric road in the world—reaching from Altadena to the sea.

In those days I used to walk over the plateaus above Santa Monica and dream of the homes, boulevards and country estates that would one day be there. The great natural beauty, the combination of mountains, sea and metropolitan city was bound to make this one of the most highly developed and sought for districts in any land.

The crescent coast is not unequal in attractiveness for permanent homesites in this country and is unsurpassed even by the Mediterranean shores of Italy.

For twenty-five years the long wharf—extending a mile and a quarter into the sea—stood unaffected by storms. This indicates what may be done with private harbors for yachts and motor boats.

With the completion of the coast highway and Beverly Boulevard, and the coming of the aqueduct water, the development will be rapid.

E. P. Clark

H. M. GORHAM, President Bank of Santa Monica.

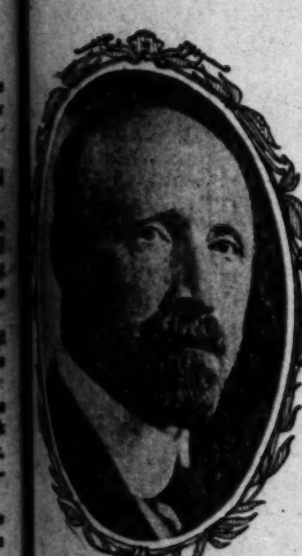

Those who are fortunate enough to own homes in Santa Monica, or who are planning to acquire one, have many reasons for self-congratulation. Elbert Hubbard, in a moment of inspiration, wrote "Blessed is the man who has found his work." I can well paraphrase it into "Blessed is the family which has found its home."

The Santa Monica Bay district embraces in its environment the grandeur of the mountains where they melt into the Pacific, the loveliness of the canyons and their wild flowers and tree growth, and the magnificence of the ocean with its illimitable spaces.

The soil is rich and the climate unsurpassed for its stimulating and invigorating qualities and for the evenness of its temperature both winter and summer. It is a real paradise for children.

Where else can one find all of these things, which add to the joy of living, within twelve miles of the largest city in California and the most rapidly growing community in the United States? Nowhere except in Santa Monica.

H. M. Gorham

JOHN PARKINSON, Architect.

About twenty-five years ago, in driving to Santa Monica by way of the Soldiers' Home, I noticed the strip of land lying between San Vicente Boulevard and the Canyon's edge, with the Santa Monica mountains directly in front across the canyon, and the broad Pacific to the left.

I thought it the most beautiful site for a home I had ever seen, so near the city and the ocean, with the restful mountains in front with their ever changing lights and shadows. I now live on the spot, and, living there, I am wondering why everyone able is not living in this, to me, most desirable of all places, so conveniently near Los Angeles.

John Parkinson

By the Sunset Sea.

(Santa Monica here used reaches from the Palisades to Topanga Canyon and from Brentwood to the sea.)

Look at Santa Monica through other men's eyes—then see it with your own.

These are men of large affairs and wide experience.

They have chosen Santa Monica as a place to invest money, to build homes, and to play.

They have dreamed dreams and seen visions and their dreams are coming true.

They say that Santa Monica is unique—that there are one hundred million people pushing at our back—that if Santa Monica had had the water it would have long since led Pasadena and Montecito as a resort and place for country estates.

The Stone Canyon reservoir in the Santa Monica Mountains is now practically finished. The aqueduct water is almost ready to turn on the Santa Monica plateaus.

Beverly Boulevard and the Coast Highway will soon give the shortest route between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara through the heart of this district. It will be a scenic drive of surpassing beauty.

The district traversed by San Vicente Boulevard on the south side of Santa Monica Canyon will be most intensely developed with homes, apartment houses and hotels. It is the Wilshire district of Santa Monica by the Sea, and is connected directly with the Wilshire district in Los Angeles by Wilshire Boulevard.

It is this district, shown on the map below as the Palisades Tract, which offers the homebuilder and investor the best opportunities at present.

Extensive building and development plans for the Santa Monica district are fast maturing and will soon begin to show in construction activity. Homes, apartment houses, hotels, clubs, golf links and rustic playgrounds are contemplated.

Santa Monica is breaking all past building records, and the activity is only just commenced.

Maps, price lists, literature and information may be obtained at the office of Frank H. Ayres, 214 New Pantages Theater Building, Los Angeles. Prices in the Palisades run from $1100 to $2500 and from $4250 to $12,500.

(Santa Monica is warmer in winter and cooler in summer than Los Angeles, and is largely protected from storms and frost.)

Agent for the Palisades and Santa Monica Property
Tract Office, Ocean Avenue at the Canyon, Santa Monica

FRANK H. AYRES, Agent for The Palisades and Santa Monica property.

You asked why I invested in Santa Monica property. My answer is, because Santa Monica is unique. The only place of its kind on the southern coast, its fertile plateaus, high above the ocean, furnish more attractive sites for country homes than Santa Barbara or Montecito.

Its proximity to Los Angeles, its magnificent views, its numerous plateaus furnishing acreage for country homes, the fact that it is the most convenient sea shore, the electric car service and the splendid highways all led me to feel there was value in the property that was bound to mature sooner or later.

The coming of the aqueduct water and the rapid development of the best residence section of Los Angeles toward Santa Monica makes certain that the Santa Monica district will come into its own with a speed that will be accelerated with each passing month.

Arthur H. Fleming

ARTHUR H. FLEMING, Capitalist.

A friend and former neighbor, Cyril Bretherton, now an exile from this "dreamland," writes from an ineffaceable recollection.

"I am dreaming of a great range of purple mountains, with gray clouds piled atop and green orchards about their feet, and deep canyons full of great boulders and live oak and sycamore and all manner of trees, and with cool water running among the stones, and high above, dense thickets of mesquite and greasewood and manzanita. I am also dreaming of a great ocean, smooth-surfaced and lifting rhythmically with the swell begotten of far storms, and Santa Catalina Island seen dimly through the haze, and brown volcanic cliffs, and above all the blue unclouded skies and the ever shining sun."

Such is this beautiful spot, Santa Monica by the Sea, without a peer in Southern California—the spot on which Pasadena would certainly have stood if the water supply, now assured, had been available twenty years ago.

Cyril Bretherton

A. M. CHAFFEY, President California Bank.

Never in the history of Southern California has the future looked so intensely bright for the limited stretch of territory westward from Los Angeles to the sea at Santa Monica.

The great Beverly Boulevard artery in connection with the Second Street tunnel will intimately tie in with Los Angeles this most favored section.

The history of the growth of all great cities has been uniformly to the west. This is proving the case in Los Angeles, and this uniquely located section is destined to become the residential portal of Los Angeles. Nature has already done wondrous things for this fair spot, but it has only needed the magic touch of water to bring the bud to a full bloom and to make it one of the most highly desirable localities in Southern California.

This Mr. Mullholland and the water board tell us, is to be accomplished within the next few weeks and I prophesy that this section will immediately enjoy the most phenomenal growth and development that has ever taken place in Southern California.

Edith S. Wright

GILBERT S. WRIGHT, Developer.

The Uplifters have been searching for the last five years for a piece of ground within reasonable distance of Los Angeles with a good growth of timber, running water and as many natural advantages as possible, our idea being to develop in our organization the same class of outdoor entertainment that has made the Family Club and the Bohemian Club of San Francisco world famous. We found no place that compared in any shape, manner or form with Rustic Canyon, Santa Monica, and consequently purchased the property.

Sheriff's Men Forcibly Take Cash from Bank.

Taking charge of a teller's cage of the Commercial National Bank yesterday, Deputy Sheriff Conly, Jewell, Holbrook and Pfeiffer, collected $17,734, which was attached in a civil suit, and carried that amount in bills to the Sheriff's office. Failing after several attempts to get the money, it was stated, paid $5 on the check instead of $500.

No sooner had the money reached the Sheriff's office than another writ of attachment was served on the bank, this time by the Sheriff's office.

In making out a check for mining stock, D. C. Payne is said to have issued the instrument to D. V. Russell, but wrote $500 in figures and "five dollars" in script. The bank, it was stated, paid $5 on the check instead of $500.

FLAGRANT VICE ADMITTED; COURTS NOW BLAMED.

Police Commission Finds "The Times" Expose of Conditions True, but Say the Law Ties Their Hands.

The existence of flagrant vice conditions in Los Angeles, as complained of by Capt. Chauncey Shackford, commanding the United States Submarine Base, and verified by first-hand investigations by representatives of The Times, was admitted by Lieut. C. R. Plummer of the police metropolitan squad, who testified late yesterday afternoon at an all-day special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners. This followed a denial by uniformed patrolmen in the morning that they knew of such conditions and their statement that they had never been informed of the Navy's charges made to the Mayor.

The courts threw the town wide open, said Lieut. Plummer, "when asked to accept as evidence testimony given by operators working for the police. That's what is the matter with Los Angeles. The hands of the police are tied. We cannot get convictions in the courts. Conditions testified to here today by representatives of The Times exist, just as these men have testified. We admit it."

"Until the Mayor and the members of the commission and all other city officials are aroused to the situation and bring about a changed attitude in the courts, your police cannot give the protection to the citizens that they should give."

Following the hearing, Police Commissioner Wilson said: "On the showing made here today we are not questioning the veracity of the reports of vice conditions made in The Times. We of the Police Commission believe that public service has been performed by The Times in calling attention to these conditions and we hope that public opinion will be aroused to the necessity of removing the handicaps under which the police are working. The courts must co-operate with the police if conditions are to be improved."

The commission's meeting yesterday was a special session called for the sole purpose of considering the vice situation as made public by The Times in the publication of Capt. Shackford's letter to the Mayor and other public officials, together with detailed reports of the results of investigations. At the conclusion of yesterday's hearing Commissioners Wilson and Barry held a long conference after which they issued their findings in a statement to the public. Mayor Snyder, by his own desire, did not participate in the conference nor did he attach his signature to the findings.

The findings of the commission uphold in the main the reports of the investigators of The Times. Lieut. Plummer declared that he would agree that specific cases of violations of the moral laws as well as of liquor selling testified to by the investigators of The Times exist, but declared that under the present policy of the courts it is almost impossible to secure convictions of those guilty of conducting these places.

The commissioners declared in their findings that the police have been active in their efforts to stamp out vice conditions, but that their efforts are handicapped by the resistance of the courts of those who have been arrested.

Lieut. Plummer added: "We admit that specific places named by The Times men are used for prostitution and that one of them is a 'blind pig,' but we can do nothing until the courts co-operate with us in the effort to stamp out vice."

Mayor Snyder participated in yesterday's hearing and throughout the day showed by his questions

LOS ANGELES (Loce Ahng-hay-lah)
 MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 The Associated Press is a corporation organized for the purpose of obtaining news for its members by the use of telegraph and other means.

SUCH IS FAME.
 One of the Washington newspapers ran five days without mentioning Woodrow Wilson's name. It is nearly ten years since this happened before. But it shows that the White House is the biggest publicity corner in the country.

OVER THE BORDER.
 Ontario has voted itself bone dry. The large cities like Toronto, Ottawa and Hamilton were not by decisive margins, but the country districts overcame the town vote. The referendum was on the question of importing intoxicating liquors. This should make it easier to enforce prohibition in Detroit, Buffalo and other cities along the American border and also curb international bootlegging.

THE WOMAN OF IT.
 A Chicago woman is going to France to see Marshal Foch and make protest against the retention of colored troops in Germany. If the women of America have opinions on any question they do not hesitate to take them to headquarters. The United States may not belong to the League of Nations, but that will not prevent the women of America from telling the nations of the earth where to get off.

THE EASY ROAD.
 Wisconsin is making country roads out of gravel and macadam at a cost of less than $4000 a mile and keeping them in first-class condition through a road patrol system that costs about $300 a year for each mile. Of course, this doesn't make a permanent boulevard, but it answers the purpose in many sections of the State. It appears to be costing about $40,000 a mile for a smooth and durable pavement and the State hasn't the means for an extended program along those lines.

PEERS STUFF.
 Senator Jim Reed has a right to be peevish because Laddie Boy, the President's Alroide, is getting more in the way of press notices than he is. The Senator from Missouri can also bark and bite—though fortunately the bark is the worst. It might be said that the bark is the worst and the bite the wisest. But it does seem a pity that so much good press stuff should be wasted on an unappreciative pup when it might be boosting a fluff favorite into fame.

AT THE DOOR.
 There is no gap in the line of immigrants at the door. Over 600,000 passports for America were certified by American consuls in Europe last year and this does not represent all the alien arrivals here by a long shot. Even now more than 60,000 Poles are awaiting transportation. There are not nearly ships enough in commission to accommodate the hordes of invaders mostly peasant, but some deadly. The bill now under debate in Congress would limit the admission of aliens for the first months beginning May 10 to 3 per cent of the nationality resident in the United States according to the census of 1910. This would still permit the coming of thousands of undesirable, but it would materially reduce the present flow. It would make possible the bringing in of over 355,000 immigrants from Europe alone. It would welcome more than 75,000 from Germany, 50,000 from Austria, 40,000 from Italy and 30,000 from Russia and Poland. The expectation, however, is that following this the barriers would be raised still higher and America be made virtually inaccessible save to those who could be accepted at once as desirable citizens. It is certain that many of those who have gained admission of late cannot be thus catalogued. America should at least be for those who are willing to become Americans.

NO SECESSION.
 Lloyd George cites the Civil War in America as good and sufficient reason why secession on the part of Ireland should be impossible. Since the scars have healed in the South hardly a voice has been raised save in thanks that the rebellion was unsuccessful. The interests and future of Ireland are as inextricably linked with England as are those of Florida or Alabama with the United States. Ireland will yet be comforted and reasonably peaceful as one of the states of Great Britain. Of course, there will be some Irish voices that can never be for peace. Were Erin's Isle to become the undisputed mistress of the world they would still find cause for quarrel. But there is no warrant nor excuse for present-day Americans sustaining them in their contention. It isn't as if it were a fight for the blessings of freedom. The Irish have and take more liberty than eleven-twelfths of the Americans of today. They do not pay the rent and taxes of the Californians and they can worship, drink or smoke according to the dictates of their conscience or the desires of their bodies. They have liberty to burn and they prove it by burning down the customhouse and the government building. If the Sinn Fein Irish had much more liberty heaven pity the rest of us! They would have us in a general war with the rest of the English-speaking world if their projects were carried to the full. They do not care so much for a republic of Ireland at this time as they do for a harried and ravaged England. They want to bif Britain, anyhow, and are not particular whether it is in the name of liberty or not.

CONFEDERATION IS SOUND.
 One of the most ill-advised speeches made of late by a minister of a responsible Cabinet was that of Premier Taschereau of Quebec. He is certainly a prophet who deserves to be without honor in his own country. He declared that the Canadian Confederation is in danger of breaking up. "We are now at the turning of the ways," he is quoted as saying in Montreal—"the status quo, or the rupture of the Federal pact, annexation to the United States, or independence." He hastened to assert that he naturally would prefer to see Canada not divided. It sounds like an afterthought. Mr. Taschereau is the Prime Minister of two one province in Canada where, to indulge in a paradox, the French-speaking minority is in the majority. He must have unusual vision if he really thinks he can discern any strong desire to break up the Dominion. His suggestion about annexation will fail to meet any response on this side of the line. There was a time when a considerable number of Americans thought that it might be desirable to round off this country by obtaining possession of the land north of forty-nine; but it has long been apparent that the people beyond the northern border prefer to be cousins rather than brothers of Uncle Sam. Outside Quebec there is no desire to "disrupt the Federal pact" and within that province are many thousands who would oppose any attempt in that direction. Just as the North fought to preserve the American Union in the sixties, so the majority of the people of Canada would be prepared to go to extreme lengths to prevent the breaking up of the Confederation.

NOT ENTIRELY SUPREME.
 After all the scares the country has been given about Japan and America going to war over the California land question we are now told that the matter is of secondary importance as compared with control of a little island across the Pacific. Yap cuts a greater figure in today's so-called crisis than the immigration problem. And here, too, there's a gentleman's agreement involved; but this time Uncle Sam isn't one of the partners, which weakens the case for Japan. Tokio says it has an understanding with the Supreme Council that Nippon was to have the mandate for the island of stone money, together with some other former German possessions, by the way of spoils. But the Supreme Council failed to remember that supremacy is only relative, especially when it overlooks the country that is really above all others in wealth and in ability to stand up for its rights. Japan rests its Yap case on a poor foundation. The control of the Supreme Council is limited to Europe; it has nothing to say in the Pacific; or rather, whatever it may say must be subject to the approval of the United States, the country with the greatest interests on the greatest ocean. It makes one smile to think of one or two men in Europe distributing largesse to Japan in the shape of Pacific islands, just as Charlie Chaplin might hand a bell boy at the Alexandria a fistful of chicken feed. Knowing, however, how keen and clever the Japanese are, one cannot conceive of them seriously pinning their faith to the promises made by a self-constituted Supreme Council. Secretary of State Hughes takes the only position possible when he says that as one cannot be authorized to surrender or cede the right of the United States in the island of Yap, the American government could not recognize the allocation of the island or the validity of the mandate.

"ONLY TWO PER CENT."
 Dr. Miriam Via Waters, who has just returned from a governmental mission to inspect the juvenile department of the country, told the Ethel Club that there was no crime wave. She quoted a statistical expert to the effect that "only 2 per cent of the civilized population of the world were arrested for crime."

On the face of it, this may seem reassuring. But that, after all, is almost as high as the birth rate and a shade higher than the normal death rate—and then it by no means takes into account all the crimes for many of which the perpetrators evade arrest or the multitudes of near-crimes who manage to keep just outside the law.

If 2 per cent of the civilized population of the world are proven criminals, and most of those are crowded into the big cities where the local percentage is immeasurably higher, if it isn't a crime wave, it is certainly a ground swell capable of rocking the boat to the danger point. If Los Angeles can claim her full quota of over 100,000 "only 2 per cent" it would give her over a thousand criminals and our jails can accommodate considerably more than that, apart from the vast number of crimes for which no arrests are made. And, while all other countries show a lower percentage of criminals than the United States, it is obvious that, if these figures are correct, statistics for this country must be considerably higher than "only 2 per cent."

We have Police Commissioner Wilson's word for it that the police department of the country admits the crime is getting beyond them, overwhelming them, submerging them.

If, therefore, the optimists can gain any comfort out of that "only 2 per cent" they are optimists indeed. For our part, we should consider two per thousand a high percentage of criminals for the "civilized world" in which a 4 per cent birth rate is regarded as better than normal and in which we are assured infant mortality often reaches 20 per cent of the births.

There may be no "crime wave" over the whole of the civilized world, but there is certainly something suspiciously like one in the big cities, and the sooner the fact is recognized and coped with the better.

RUNNING WILD.
 The Senate at Sacramento has passed the Human Bill requiring outside firms and corporations to pay a license fee in addition to the taxes and assessments already levied by city, State and nation. This license is expected to bring in another half-million dollars of revenue and create another political bureau for its collection. The Sacramento idea is to devise new forms of taxation, assessment or license which will give jobs to another bunch of heelers in the collection and distribution of the same. The circle thus keeps widening and in time everybody will either be working for the administration or paying the burden of its keep. This is perpetual motion in its finest political sense. The present Assembly is appropriating a matter of some $30,000,000 to speed up the machinery. God help California!

A GHASTLY FAILURE.
 To the view of a philosophy evolved from a study of the facts of history the statesmanship that has guided the destinies of Europe for centuries past stands today as a ghastly failure.

After thousands of years of civilization, two thousand years of which are recorded as Christian, the Old World lies spent and broken—a pathetic and heart-breaking spectacle.

Travelers returning to these shores from the other side of the Atlantic say that there is a brooding melancholy over all Europe. They say that its peoples are everywhere staggering under their burdens without heart or hope.

Add the travelers who say this are not newly adventurous, but travelers of long experience also; those who have been long acquainted with the purely physical melancholy of ancient lands, aching with age and worn with time. But they say now that a melancholy has affected the peoples themselves as well as the fields and plains and hills wherein they dwell.

If you will look at pictures of Europe painted by wandering artists, even in past generations, you cannot fail to notice the sadness that seems to brood over the pastoral beauty depicted.

Well, it is the same now with the peoples there. They are sad like their fields and hills.

And if you would be happy Europe is a good place to stay away from, the travelers tell us. If you visit it you will be depressed beyond all words to express.

There is no longer a gay France, a merry England. There is not in all Europe one single happy land left.

And it is all the ghastly result of European statesmanship.

It is a harsh conclusion to arrive at, but it is the truth. Nor does it change the conclusion at all to say that present conditions in Europe are the result of a recent great war for which Germany is to blame. Germany is to blame for the last war, to be sure, but there have been almost innumerable wars before this for which nations other than Germany must stand the blame. To find the trouble we must go deeper and farther than the war that Germany attempted to wage against the world.

France waged war against the world in times past. So did England, Italy and other nations of Europe. Greece and Rome were their patterns. The statesmanship of Europe has been schooled in the brutal idea of force and greed.

And the result is a spectacle to make the very angels in heaven weep.

Is it not an awful arrangement of that statesmanship that the peoples whose destinies were in its hands are now broken like reeds in the wind? That they are bent and spent and that they move about in life like dead ghosts?

Everywhere in Europe the average man is a victim of nervous prostration. He starts at the sound of his own voice. He is a man never free from the haunting fear that something even worse than that which has happened to him is likely yet to happen.

And if you will look back into history you will find that the same frightful condition that exists now has existed before—not once, but often before.

Since there is any record of Europe it has been a record like this. Its breathing spells of peace have been few and far between. It has no sooner wiped the blood from its eyes after one war than it got ready for another. Its statesmanship taught it to do so. Is it any wonder, then, that the peoples of the Old World are enveloped in the raw mists of a pessimism that chills them to the heart? And can the statesmanship by which their destinies have been guided be respected, since even now, after it stands damned in the sight of history, it shows no sign of changing its ways or of holding out the slightest hope to its victims?

They are still playing the old game in the old way over there. They are still rattling the sabers and fondling the guns. They still can see no way to live except by annihilating their neighbors. They are still praying at Christian altars, but it is the shadow and not the substance of Christianity that they grasp.

What Europe must do is to quit war; to try another way than the old way that has

MADAME PRESIDENT.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

Women's Federation and club elections in the air, new presidential victims being recklessly nominated by their friends, hopes, fears, wild praise and caustic criticism rampant, positively nobody neutral.

Of course, it is an honor to be elected president of a big federation, of a big club, yes, even of a little club. But it is an honor weighty with noble obligations, the greater the honor the more exacting the duties. A good president is very much of a heroine. If she achieves half that is demanded of her she is in for a twenty-four-hour day, with not even a Sabbath rest. Her telephone alone is one long, raging, persistent, imperative demand. Her mail is prodigious. She is at once Madame President and "your obedient servant."

For a club president must be all things to all women. Above all, she must be serenely personified, no mercurial tears or a jolly go of hysteria for her. In quietness and confidence lies her strength. She must be intellectual, well bred, versed in the social courtesies and have a memory of unimpeachable rectitude. She must carefully learn and tabulate several thousand names, remember their personalities, their sick husbands, their new babies, their debutante daughters, their promising sons, their social-welfare activities, their literary, artistic, political or other virtues—and drop a graceful reference thereto with just the proper shade of interest and appreciation. She must be a capable dictator with orderly-minded logic and just a soupçon of humor to lighten the whole.

And she must be well and discreetly governed, just smart enough, but not too smart, just luxurious enough, but not extravagant. She must have a well-ordered home devoid of scandal and stand well with her neighbors. She must attend all club meetings, board meetings, committee meetings, gracefully supervise a dozen committees—and both delegate and retain responsibility with dignity and diplomacy. She must be able to make prompt and effective decisions, to make prompt and effective decisions, to make prompt and effective decisions.

And she must be a capable dictator with orderly-minded logic and just a soupçon of humor to lighten the whole.

is that the cost of operation of an electric range is prohibitive. She will study the new type of hot plates with open or indirect coils, to be used as one needs quick-glance, the advantage of the heating element even which may be warned to any required heat by the indicator, and where the baking operations may be watched with ease through the glass door of the high oven. Her knowledge of the basic principles of cooking will quicken her appreciation of the conservation merits of the electric range. She will see that the cooking of meats and soups, started with the expenditure of a little heat, may be carried to final perfection without shrinkage in bulk or loss of flavor. She will see that the electric range, without the effort, even of turning off the switch, for the full hour, will save the time and the fuel. Waterbury attends to that. Last but not least in her appraisal will be the new range, balanced against the other days and the ease with which it may be kept in its original state of shiningness.

COMPLETE FURNISHERS OF SUCCESSFUL HOMES

When smugglers fall out the government often gets its due. This was demonstrated yesterday in the conviction by a jury in U. S. District Judge Biedson's court, of Harry Stoovis, charged with violation of the immigration laws. Both Stoovis and Paul Pappas, who pleaded guilty to the same charge some time ago, will be sentenced Monday. Both are from Sacramento.

Last December, Pappas, Stoovis
and Emma Burns were apprehended
at San Juan Capistrano by immigration inspectors. They traveled in two big automobiles, and ten Chinese con-
trabandoes were stowed away in the machines. The party was taken to the San Diego County Jail. It is a part of the record that this was the second smuggling trip of the men,
the first one having been successful
in landing a load of Chinese in San Francisco.

1. will be the inclosed veranda cafe
and ballroom on B deck.
The entire space aft on B deck has been entirely inclosed, with heavy glass windows, so arranged that by day it makes a beautiful sunlit
room, where passengers may lounge
and rest, corresponding to the observation car of a transcontinental limited. While passengers are at dinner, this room will be cleared of

furniture and oriental rugs and
given over to the evening dance
program, with music by the ship's orchestra. Comfortable seats have been arranged along each side of
the veranda cafe with little tables
for refreshments, and a buffet, serving light lunches, will be operated
throughout the evening dance program.

The construction of the veranda
cafe is unusual in every way. It has a dome ceiling that does much
toward making it one of the beautiful spots of the ship. Decorative panels are carried out between the windows with the figures typifying the carnival spirit.

This veranda cafe and ballroom
is the first of its kind on any ship,
and is so novel that it is expected
to be one of the most popular features of service on the Yale and Harvard between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Until the Harvard goes into commission, early in May, the Yale
will sail from Los Angeles Harbor
Monday and Thursday afternoon
of each week at 3 o'clock, arriving at San Francisco at 3 o'clock the next morning.

On the return trip the Yale will leave San Francisco on Tuesday and Friday afternoon of each week at 4 o'clock, arriving at Los Angeles at 10 o'clock the next morning.

Official announcement has been made of the opening of the downtown ticket office of the Los Angeles
Steamship Company at 517 South
Spring street.

Heavy reservations are being
made for the first sailing of the Yale.

DESPONDENT, RICH BROKER KILLS SELF.

Years of Ill Health Drive
Retired Man to Take Own Life in Vacant Lot.

Despondent because of years of
ill-health, Alfred Pearson, 70 years
of age, a wealthy retired broker of 6851 Franklin avenue, early yesterday morning walked to a vacant lot
at Franklin and Wilcox avenues and shot himself through the head. The body was discovered by neighbors
and removed to the Smith Undertaking Company.

From what could be learned by
the police who investigated the suicide yesterday, Mr. Pearson came to this city several years ago with his wife. He was in poor health at the time and under the care of a physician. Tuesday Mr. Pearson was suffering from pain and lack of sleep and stated that he would not be able to stand the misery much longer.

A note written by Mr. Pearson before he left his home early yesterday morning was discovered by the police. It read:
"Dear Bess (his wife): I have been walking the floors since 1:15
a.m. Can hardly breathe. I love
you. Sorry to have to take this step.
My pain and misery are more than I can bear. I think that I am losing my mind and courage. You have been a good, loving and thoughtful wife to me. AIL P. S.—
Please have my body cremated."

York. The Yorks have one child,

Mrs. York testified that on one

VICE ADMITTED; COURTS BLAMED

Police Commission Concedes
"Times" Expose True.

Says Justices Tie Hands by Lack of Co-operation.

"Threw Town Wide Open," is Lieutenant's Charge.

Angels if conditions were not corrected. Besides Lieut. Plummer, J. C. Bruttig of the Metropolitan Squad also testified yesterday afternoon, and during the morning session testimony was given by Patrolmen Joseph Vaughan, Daniel Berg, Richard P. Held, Harry E. Jensen, E. W. Vaughn, George B. Welch and W. Joffe and by Sergeant E. C. Beaumont and Anthony Connolly. All of these officers except the two members of the metropolitan squad work in uniform and Lieut. Plummer testified that uniformed patrolmen cannot be held accountable for detecting vice conditions and securing convictions because "looking out in blind pigs" when policemen approach. All of the uniformed men testified that they had noted no special violations of the law or activities of law-breakers in the north end of the city last Saturday afternoon or on Sunday.

THE FINDINGS.
Following is the full text of the commission's report:

Los Angeles, April 20, 1921.
In view of the expose of the immoral condition of certain districts in the city of Los Angeles, which appeared in one or two of the daily newspapers, the Police Commission of this city deemed it advisable to make an immediate and thorough investigation.

Accordingly, the Chief of Police was instructed to call the various police officers who patrolled the districts concerned, and also the various members of the vice division of the police department, to submit to the commission such testimony and evidence on the subject as they had to offer. Furthermore, the commission requested the newspapers and associates who had made the investigations, and had made the criticisms of laxity in the administration of the laws, which made the existence of such immoral conditions possible, to appear before the commission and offer such evidence as they had.

The evidence submitted by those making the complaint established conclusively that there did exist at the time they mentioned a considerable degree of immorality, some witnesses testifying that he saw no less than eleven women actually soliciting, while he saw in the aggregate probably thirty-five whom he suspected by their associations, and due to their living in immediate proximity to the eleven, as being of the same class. Other witnesses could not testify to having seen so many.

The officers and members of the police department frankly admitted that there did exist at that time a number of immoral women located in the districts mentioned. It is agreed by both the officers and representatives of the press that these women were practically all of them Mexicans—very few if any women of other races being observed. The also stated that the patrons of these houses were almost wholly of the same class, principally Mexicans—very few Americans being observed. It was clearly established that the police department had, previous to the dates mentioned, namely, Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday, April 16 and 17, made arrests of several of these women, raiding their houses and placing them under arrest. Similar arrests were made on Sunday, one of the days in question—in fact, three houses, with a total of seven arrests for this offense, were raided on Sunday, the 17th.

AVOID POLICE.
From the evidence submitted it appears that what solicitation was done was done with considerable caution and care in avoiding the authorities. A complete system of signals was used to warn the violators of the presence of officers, which rendered it exceedingly difficult for the officers to detect violations of the law. The principal district in question constituted a small part of one of the beats of the officer, which total area to be patrolled by the officer was so extensive as to make it impossible for him to pass this particular district oftener than once an hour.

It is important to note that the evidence does not corroborate the conclusion that was made in the paper, that crib houses or a red light district was openly operating in Soho; but, on the contrary, it seems clear that what houses may have been occupied by women of ill fame were located here and there among dwellings of that district; and further, that their operations were conducted with considerable secrecy.

LAWS BLAMED.
The investigation brings out the highly important point that our State laws, together with the construction placed upon these laws by some of our courts, require evidence and testimony of such a character in prosecuting this class of women as to render it exceedingly difficult, and, in some instances, well-nigh impossible, to secure a conviction.

It will thus be quite clear, and the public should be thoroughly acquainted with the facts, that the construction of the law as it now obtains in some of our courts, constitutes such a barrier to the efforts on the part of the police department to suppress this vice as to render such efforts well-nigh futile.

We find that this obstacle, while not deterring our officers in their zeal to suppress this vice, is nevertheless recognized by them as being a most serious handicap to their efforts, as well as a great encouragement to the degenerates and all their associates interested in this class of vice. We are pleased to note among a considerable number of the officers who testified a degree of frankness and straightforwardness in their testimony which cannot but convince us of their sincerity and their honest efforts to perform their duties faithfully.

We deem it high time that the citizenry of Los Angeles appreciate the situation to the fullest extent, and we regard it our duty to so inform the public and to call attention to the prodigious price the reputable citizens of Los Angeles pay for such faulty laws and practices.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
We would strongly urge the citizenry of power and influence in the community to take immediate and drastic steps to remove the obstacles mentioned, to the end that the way may be clear for our police department and our courts to render speedy and effectual relief from a situation which threatens to become a municipal disgrace.

The commission wishes to state that it invites any information from any source whatsoever that is honestly made, with a desire to assist us and the police department in the performance of our duties in suppressing such evils, and thereby enabling us to better protect the peace and security of the community.

In conclusion, pending such a time when our criminal procedure can be revised and improved, we wish to assure the public that the police department will most persistently and zealously continue to pursue its duty and will use its full power to arrest the people guilty of such vices, and suppress vice, particularly of this character, wherever and whenever possible.

DRIVE FOR GARMENTS.

Red Cross Wants Thousands to Send to European Tots.

Declaring that millions of children in Europe are dying from exposure as from illness brought on by being inadequately clothed, officers of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Red Cross announced yesterday that a drive will be launched to get 11,000 lavettes for the babies of the world. It will also collect $5,000 other garments for children between the ages of 1 and 14, and will rush the clothing to Europe by the first of June.

This is the first time since the war that the local Red Cross chapter has made an appeal for public help. The need is urgent. It is stated at headquarters, and as the chapter is spending between $100,000 and $200,000 a month in soldier relief it cannot meet the demand alone.

The chapter will open the drive with a mass meeting to be held at the Friday Morning Club next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Contributions may be made at the Red Cross headquarters, 321 Coulter Building.

ACTORS TO BOOST FOR SOUTHLAND.

Theatrical Folk to Bear
"Straight Ahead" Slogan to Every Corner of Land.

Greater Southern California,
Straight Ahead!

And now it is going all over the land, in a new way, sent on its tour by a new impetus, and through a new channel, that will bring the Times' slogan before every corner of the country.

The trouper are doing it. The player folk have taken up the message and, by means of the stickers on their trunks, are to carry it broadcast into every city they play—and in this case it includes every city in the land.

They started it at the Orpheum and Alice Lloyd, the English comedienne, found the way first. "What a bally idea. I'll take it back to dear old Lunnun with me, what-o!" Then she set about securing the necessary material. The other girls in the present Orpheum bill heard of it and immediately wanted in on the plan.

"I'll tell you what, all right, all right," declared the fair Alice. "We'll have a 'straight ahead' party, we will, and we'll plaster the bally things on our luggage, and we'll show 'em back home that this is a live town, what-o?"

There was a chorus of approval from the Kallis "Temptation" girls and the four queens of Bobby O'Neill, and from Betty Wheeler and from the others in the bill, and the get-together, stick-on party was set for yesterday afternoon.

The Times supplied the posters and the cards, and Bill Brennan, the theater advertising man, was held up for his paste brush, his tack hammer and the other appliances that go with an honest-to-goodness bill sticker. Immediately after the final act at yesterday's matinee the girls, still in their stage tops, assembled below stage, where their baggage was stored, and went to it. No trunk was sacred from their paste brush or hammer; no piece of scenery or luggage escaped. The result was an array of "straight ahead" signs that made the dim recesses of the below-stage regions blaze with blue.

NAVAL OFFICER ILL.

Rear-Admiral Twining, Second Under Rodman, Stricken.

Rear-Admiral Nathan Twining, second in command to Admiral Rodman, commander of the Pacific Fleet, is confined to his suite at the Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, with a severe attack of bronchitis.

Admiral Twining was stricken late Tuesday evening and was immediately placed in the care of Capt. J. H. Dean, staff medical officer of the Pacific Fleet.

The naval officer passed a fairly comfortable night and danger of pneumonia or other complications has vanished. It was reported yesterday. No callers are permitted at his suite.

Good Advice to the Billions.

Those who are bilious, dyspeptic and constipated feel miserably a good share of the time. They would soon feel fine and enjoy their meals if they would take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen their digestion and regulate the liver and bowels.—(Advertisement.)

Where do you stand?

For increased production at decreased cost
or decreased production at increased cost?

THE unions have made a demand on the commercial printing plants of Los Angeles that from May 1st their hours be cut from the present 48-hour week to a 44-hour week—with no reduction in pay.

This reduction in working hours would result in an average increase of 25% in the cost of producing printing in Los Angeles.

The fifty commercial printing plants, whose names appear below, are members of the "48-hour League of California," an organization unalterably opposed to the 44-hour week or any other move to reduce production or increase cost.

As a citizen and vitally interested in the future industrial welfare of Southern California—you are urged to lend your moral and financial support to these plants.

You—whether a buyer of printing or not—will be eventually affected by an increased cost of printing.

Further—once the printing unions have won the shorter hours, the move will rapidly spread to every other industry—with resultant high increases in the cost of living.

So line up now in resisting this outrageous demand. See if your printer's name is on the list below. If he is—give him 100% support.

PASADENA HOTEL
STRING IS SOLD.California Company Holdings
Bought from Andrews.Complete Control of Circuit
Passes to New Hands.Maryland, Huntington, Green
Included in Purchase.Negotiations of the past between
J. B. Coulton and A. M. Andrews,
chief owners of the California Hotel
Company, operating the Maryland,
Huntington, Green and Pasadena resort hotels at Pasadena, resulted yesterday in the purchase of most of the Andrews interests by Col.
John Lambert, Harry L. Thompson
and Mr. Coulton.These three, it is stated, had previously purchased the holdings
of the Huntington Land and Improvement Company, so that they
now control the hotel circuit out-
right and will conduct its affairs.
The two deals are said to represent several million dollars.Mr. Coulton, formerly a Pasadena banker, continues as president
and general manager of the company. Col. Lambert and Mr. Thompson are wealthy Chicago men, who spend their winters here. Mr.

DRY FORCES FOR CRYER.

In joint session, the Southern California Prohibition Committee and the Los Angeles County Prohibition Committee yesterday endorsed George E. Cryer, candidate for Mayor. The action of the prohibitionists followed discussion of the Mayor's situation. Platforms of each of the three principal candidates were discussed at length. Mr.
Cryer then received the endorsement. Among those present were:
H. C. Needham, State chairman;
J. C. Bell, Southern California committee chairman; J. S. Edwards, O.
U. Hull, C. S. Corkill, Dr. M. Loh
Hutchins, M. K. Walker, Mrs.
Laura Hayden Boleyn, Mrs. D.
Cham Hoffman and F. A. Den-
more.The following letter is to carry
return to Pasadena during the winter tourist season to assist Mr.
Coulton.Mr. Andrews, who is a wealthy investment banker with offices in different parts of the country, but
who makes his home here, is said
to have made a good profit on the sale of his interests to the Coulton-Lambert-Thompson interests. He and Mr. Coulton bought the hotel
from D. M. Linnard a year and a half ago.The change in control of the hotels affects two corporations—the California Hotel Company of Pasadena, which is the holding company owning all of the shares of the California Hotel Company of California, which is the operating company. The holding company
also owns the shares of subsidiary companies, which own the Carmelita Hotel site in Pasadena and a large chicken ranch near Riverside. The Coulton-Lambert-Thompson interests purchased not merely the hold-the notification of indorsement to Mr. Cryer.
Mr. George E. Cryer,
Los Angeles, Cal.
My Dear Sir: At a meeting of a large number of prohibitionists, including both the State and county
committees, after a very careful consideration of the claims of the various candidates for Mayor of this city, we unanimously indorsed you
as the most available man for the position, because we believe you to be the best qualified from a business
standpoint, and also because we believe you would use your best endeavors to clean up the vice conditions now prevailing in the city.
Yours truly,

hibition Committee.ing of Mr. Andrews personally, but those of Andrews & Co. of which he is the head.In a statement about the change,
issued yesterday, J. B. Coulton, president of the company, states that
more details of the company's plans
for the hotels will be announced
later. "There will be some adjustment of rates at all the hotels," he stated, "and under a new policy
the Green will be operated on a scale ranging from popular prices
to those charged for first-class accommodations. No plans for Carmelita are ready for announce-

MUSIC FOR TIRED MEN.

Gamut Club Sounds New Slogan at Mid-Monthly Smoker.Music as a means of relaxation for the "tired business man" was the slogan
sounded by the Gamut Club at its
mid-monthly smoker last night
through E. C. Judah, vice-president.
The club, Mr. Judah said, is endeavoring to bring home to the business men of the city the genuine enjoyment provided by means of music
at the club's monthly affairs."The enjoyment obtained at our smokers," he declared, "makes the
work we do tomorrow simply play,
after a Gamut Club night."
The importance of Los Angeles as an art center was emphasized by J. F.
Kant, club member, when he announced that a local painting by C.
M. Russell, called "The Robe Seller's Salute," recently sold for $10,000.
The clubmen were entertained with a program prepared by Joseph Dupuy and contributed to by the Arlon Quartet, Raymond Elliott,
Charles W. Horn, William Brent and Houston Dudley; Herbert Riley, cel-
list, accompanied by Raymond Mc-Peeters, Jack Wetherby and Arnold
Kraus, violinist, who for fourteen years was conductor of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

SANTA MONICA, April 20.—Santa Monica City Commissioners today set May 11 as the date for the first election against the Mainstreet assessments which were made by the officials recently for all Santa Monica property owners to the extent of $424,000.There are 750 protests against the project of opening and widening Main street on file now, based on what the property owners declare is unfair assessment. It is held that the improvement would be purely
local in value, whereas the officials propose to tax the whole city. It is also declared by many of the protestants that the land to be condemned has been valued at exorbitant
prices.The Commissioners believe that the city favors the improvement, but
is dissatisfied with the taxation plan.
Much of Santa Monica property
is owned by nonresidents, and objections are coming in from Los Angeles and other communities as well
as Santa Monica.Many Other Im-

What Is ORANGE PEKOE Tea?

It has nothing to do with oranges. It is simply an oriental term to denote one of the different gradings of tea. There are three gradings of Orange Pekoe Tea—Flowery Orange Pekoe "tea of very finest quality" Broken Orange Pekoe " " " choice " "
Orange Pekoe " " " average " "The first two are very much superior to ordinary Orange
